

Last Fling to Host Clint Black Labor Day Weekend

NAPERVILLE, Ill. – July 22, 2010 – The Naperville Jaycees are proud to announce Clint Black will perform at 8 p.m. on the Rotary Hill Main Stage at the Last Fling, Sun., Sept. 5 this Labor Day weekend.

"You could say that we're in a happy 'State of Mind'," said Mike Kreger, Last Fling co-executive director about his team's decision to sign the five-time Academy of Country Music Award winner.

If you love country music, Clint Black's melodies are virtually a soundtrack of the '90s. The three-time Country Music Association Award winner, two-time Grammy winner and TNN Music Award winner filled six complete albums with original songs, which included hits like "A Better Man", "Killin' Time" and "State of Mind".

"We look forward to hearing those memorable songs live at the Last Fling," said Kreger.

Annabelle Road, a young, energetic country band, opens for Clint Black at 6 p.m. and Jason & The Haymakers will start the show at 4 p.m. Main Stage tickets are $15 all weekend, except Monday is free. For more information on the Last Fling's weekend
